Newsletter

October 2010

The newsletter of the Wy'east Artisans Guild comes out the first week of the month. If you have content to include that is of interest to the Guild, please send it to Rod Stroh at rod.stroh@yahoo.com by the 25th of the month prior to publication. Are you going to be featured in a show or a gallery? Let us know!

Our Nest Meeting.....

Learn how to Z'oodle November 8, 2010, 7:00 p.m., at the Clackamas County Bank Auditorium 38965 Proctor Blvd. Z'anne Bakke will show you how doodling can focus the mind, kick start the right side of the brain and get you on a path to creative thinking. You do not need to be an artist or know how to draw in order to learn how to Z'oodle. All you need is a Pigma Micron 03 marking pen if you wish to join in. Any gel pen will get you started!

If you have questions please call Z'anne 503.668.5315 or email acbakke@msn.com

Following the program we will hold our Annual Meeting, where we will vote on 2 open Board of Directors positions

Let's get creative.....

More Opportunities to Shine!

We have the opportunity to show our work and host a preview night at Sandy Actors Theatre. Everyone in attendance will see the play free, with donations going to the Guild. This is where the Guild depends on you to spread the word to your contacts. I'll be sending an invitation for you to send out.

We are not taking a commission, but are suggesting a 20% donation to the Guild. The work will be sold by the artist, not the Theater, same as our regular theme shows. If you have any questions let me know.

Art submission information for the 'Whimsical Monster' art exhibit should be sent to Becky Hawley anytime before January 11. Include: Title, medium, size and price. The preview performance and reception is Feb. 10. The play is "A fine Monster You Are" a comedy farce about a Troll living in a families' basement.

"The Curious Savage" (Comedy-dramamental institution related, April 7) and "Assisted Living" (June 2- family, elder memory loss related) More info later....

It's a party.....

The WAG Christmas Party will be held on December 12, 1pm to 3:30 at (venue in Sandy to be announced). We'll have a potluck with a catered main dish. The member will bring the side dishes and desserts. Bring your own table service. We need a firm RSVP with the number in your party by Nov.26, so we can order the food. The venue may not allow alcohol to be served, but we will have juice and coffee.

A gift exchange of hand-crafted, homemade items or art supplies will follow the meal. Each person participating should bring a wrapped or bagged gift marked male or female, where appropriate.
RSVP to: Ann Fenwick at fenwicks1@frontier.com 668-5816
