The Jan 14th Meeting

On January 14, our meeting will focus on New Year's goal-setting and positive thinking and will include a presentation by Ellie Storlie, for an exciting new project. You won't want to miss this meeting! Do you have something to bring for show and tell? This would be an excellent time to bring guests; the more the merrier. Doors open at 6:30.

Congratulations to Edna Kennel who won the first prize in our Guessing Game at the Christmas party!

[in-spuh-rey-shuh n] noun

1. An inspiring or animating action or influence: I cannot write poetry without inspiration.
2. Something inspired, as an idea.
3. A result of inspired activity.
4. A thing or person that inspires.

All of this can be yours! But, for it to come to fruition, you need to make the effort to participate. The groundwork has been laid for a successful non-profit organization. All we need to do as a group is stay within those parameters, when planning an event or project. Our Board of Directors will help me, as President, achieve our collective goals and to follow the regulations that govern non-profits. I trust they'll be there to aid the next person in my position. Everyone must pull together to move WAG forward...

I would now like to thank Joan and Clair for all the work they did for the Christmas party Joan and her husband were both sick and couldn't stay. It was an intimate group, but those that chose to participate had a good time and the food was great.

Having rambled on and on...I want to thank everyone who participated in the Guild last year and I hope for good things in the coming year.

What's your goal for the New Year? See you all at the Jan. 14 meeting. Happy New Year!

Ann Fenwick---WAG President

Get out your magnifying glass and read some Agatha Christie to clue into some inspiration for the next art show:
