Wy'east Artisans Guild Newsletter

New President Elect!

Ann Fenwick officially resigned from her position as President; but, she is still waiting to sign the papers on her new home in LaPine. The good news is, Claire Harrison will take on the day to day management, until the Board meets and officially elects her President for 2013. Thank you, Claire!

Top 'O' the Morning to Our New Members!

A warm welcome to our two newest guild members; Jennifer Bliesner and Ron Haner.

Jennifer is a multi-talented artist, who specializes in hand-cast cement sculptures and watercolor. Please add her to your roster.

Phone: 503-668-5434 & 971-645-2901 Email: genevievesgarden@hotmail.com

Ron Haner is the son of EZ Jewell and he enjoys pen & ink drawing. You will find his contact information under EZ's listing.

Upcoming Meetings

Friends and family are welcome to come so share the fun! And remember, there will be a nice door prize at each meeting!

March 11, 6:30 pm

Our own fine water colorist, Edna Kennel, demonstrates how to use gold leaf to add sparkle and new life to your art work.

April 8, 6:30 pm

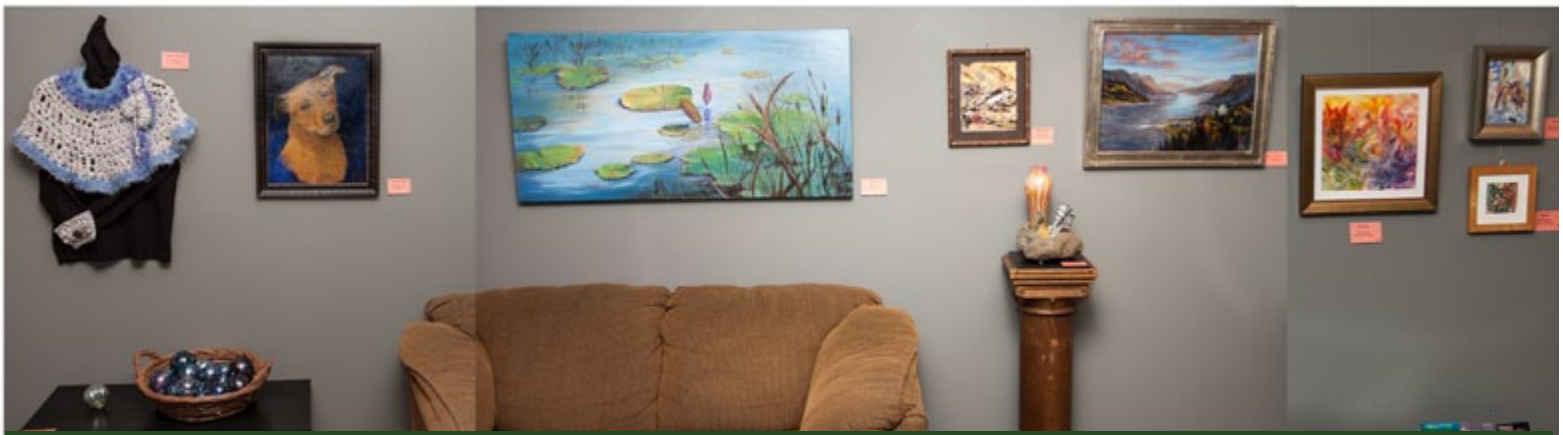

Beth Verheyden, well respected water color instructor, gets back to basics for all media, discussing critical elements and principals of design important in creating all subjects. She will offer fresh insights into how to make your art more enjoyable.

May 13, 6:30 pm

C. Lesley Lent, from Damascus, demonstrates how to create incised pottery with multi colors to tell stories of the seasons. She will bring her pottery and explain how and where she gets inspirations for her designs.

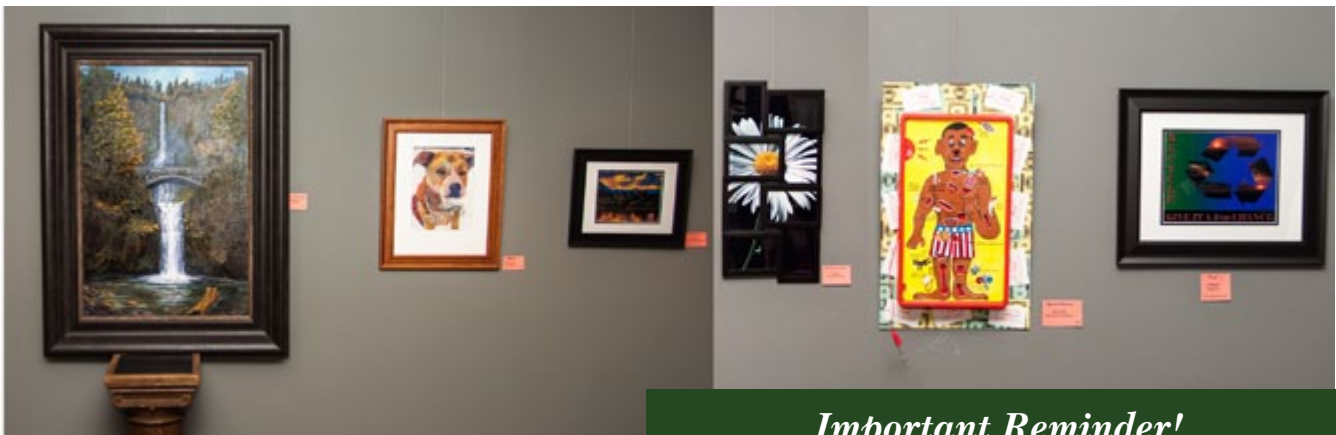

November 11th GUILD ANNUAL MEETING

At 8pm the WAG Annual Members meeting will be held to elect members to our Board of Directors. The slate of candidates was set at the October meeting. Candidates for position #1(Bek)-for position #2 (Deb). position #3(Cheryl)

The Second Chances Show

A big thank you to everyone that participated in the “Second Chances Show”. Remember the more art pieces we can get for each show makes for a much stronger and more diverse showing. If you don’t have time to make a new piece, find an older piece in your archives that has some application to the current theme. The more differences in art, the better chances we have of pulling in a wider audience and possibly new members to the guild. The “Second Chances Show” had a better presence than some past shows because we had more members participating.

Remember to Pick Up Your Art

A reminder from Becky Hawley; Thank you for participating in the 2nd Chances show. This is a reminder to be at the Sandy Actors Theatre at 5:30 on Sunday, March 3. Ellie Storlie will be there to help; but, please wait until the lobby clears out (mostly) before removing the artwork.

Board of Directors & Officers

Claire Harrison- Board Member & President
11sunnymom@gmail.com
Cheryl Hooley- Board Member & Secretary
Becky Hawley- Board Member & Treasurer
bek.hawley@yahoo.com
Ellie Storlie- Board Member
estorlie50@hotmail.com
Debi Vann- Board Member
debi@cherokeedesign.com

Important Reminder!

Bring your art pieces to the library with information attached between March 9th & the 12th to be considered for the “Music at the Coffeehouse” show. Beth Verheyden of “Verheyden Studios” will be reviewing works at 4:00 on the 12th. She will be looking to see if the content matches the theme of the show, and for quality and presentability. Work must be clean with an appropriate frame and hanging wire. No strings, tape or clamps on hangers or frames.

Sure’n ‘Tis on the web we be!

We have a website...

weeastartisansguild.com

Thanks go to Debi Vann again, for this service to benefit the Guild. This site will be updated in February with information for each current member. Each member has a page onto which they may have artwork, a bio or other information placed.

If you do NOT want your information listed, will you please let us know when you renew your membership.
