Upcoming Meeting - May 13th 6:30pm

Jane Reid will talk to our group. She is the organizer of the very successful group who, with PGE, have produced the dam art She is willing to talk to us about the concept program. This group has special permission to visit the dams on the Clackamas River and produce art inspired by the dams. She has potters, poets, painters, interested people who produce work which has been displayed widely. She has obtained grants through the Ford Foundation to make it all work. She will talk to us about the concept and possibilities for Wy'East to start its own program with the Mt. Hood Forest.

That's Entertainment Show

The theme for the show is whatever you feel represents entertainment to you; it could be theater, music, sports, whatever you are personally entertained by. This opens the door for a broad range of ideas and topics so let's see what entertains you. Please let Becky know if you plan on participating in the show so she can plan accordingly.

May 30th "That's Entertainment!" preview show at the Sandy Actor's Theatre. If you will have art in the show, try to plan on coming to the preview to talk about your work to the crowd.
