Sept. 8th. Show-N-Tell

We all had fun showing what we 'd been up to over the summer break.

From top left going clockwise: Eileen Holzman describes her watercolor project, Sura shows her paper mosaic project, Dawnna showed her E-Book illustrations, (books are available on Amazon.com) and lower left, new member Helen Von Struense shows us her painting of "Punch Bowl Falls" in the Columbia Gorge.

After the summer break, our September 8th meeting opened with a warm welcome back from President Claire Harrison.

Claire explained the election process for Board of Director's positions and officer appointments, as follows: This year, 2 positions expire on the Board of Directors and come up for election.

During the October 13 meeting, the slate of nominees will be put forth by the Nomination Committee and nominations will be taken from the floor. At this time, each candidate declares which position they are seeking and the final slate of nominees is published in the next newsletter.

At the Annual Member's Meeting on Nov. 10th, every voting member present, will decide which candidates will fill the 2 positions, for a 2 year term.

October 13th Speaker, Vern Groff

At our next meeting, October 13th (doors open at 6:30, meeting at 6:45) Wy'east Guild member Vernon Groff, a prolific watercolor artist, will reflect on his career in graphic design, his passion for painting and discuss his approach to watercolor.

How to listen to a painting and, how to survive watercolor disasters by not taking yourself too seriously.

Next Play: “Deathtrap”

Art show...TANGLED WEB

- You have an opportunity to have your work considered for the posters and for inclusion in the press releases! You will find the deadline for inclusion in the press release in the SAT show schedule.
