WANTED:
Art for "A New Day"
By May 20

Thursday May 31 through Sunday June 24, Wy'East Artisans Guild presents "A New Day" art show in the lobby of the Sandy Actor's Theatre. The art show will be on display through the run of the play, The Cemetery Club, a funny, moving, sweet-tempered romantic comedy. The public is invited to the Sandy Actors Theatre on Thursday, May 31 at 6:45 for a reception. Artists talk at 7:00, followed by a dress-rehearsal performance of the comedy, The Cemetery Club. There is no charge; all donations go to support the Wy'East Artisans Guild's community programs.

"A New Day" is a display by local artists, featuring watercolor artist Loisann Young. Loisann Young uses morning light to give warmth and life to her artwork. Young explains her philosophy, "I continually work to improve my skills by focusing on good design, composition, and story. My inner focus is to follow my heart, painting things that inspire me and give me peace and joy. I believe all these things will help me to be the best painter I can be."

May 24 Member Meeting: Summer Plans

THANK YOU to everyone who helped with the Children's Day activities at the Sandy Public Library! It was a great success.

Presentation: Wayne Kuechler on Forensic Art

Wayne described for us his time as a police forensic artist producing suspect sketches, and the method he used, assembling a likeness piece by piece from a book of example photos. Wayne gave us just-for-fun “homework”—an imaginary suspect sketch to make on our own. If you complete yours by the May 24th members meeting, please bring it to share!
