January 15 Member Meeting Notes

In attendance: Jennifer Bliesner, Steve and Marcia Morrow, Earlean Marsh, Cheryl Hooley, Helen von Struense, Lea Topliff, Dawnna Goudie, JoAnne Rohweder, Becky Hawley, Rod Stroh, Karen Hewgley, Micaiah Meyer, Vern Groff, Melody Bush, Loisann Young, Martha Reel, Kim Nelson, Caryn Tilton, Olga Gerberg

Carrie Moore of Carrie Moore Studios in Oregon City gave a talk on mixed media and a demonstration of paperclay. She told us her history of starting as a graphic designer, then becoming a printmaker, stopping because of the toxicity of that medium, but finding she could use her old print blocks to emboss leather, and most recently discovering paperclay.

Paperclay is a versatile cellulose clay made in Japan. It needs to stay moist to be workable, requires only simple tools, dries flexible, and can be painted over with acrylic paint. You can find the best prices on Amazon.

WANTED: New Guild Secretary

As of June, Dawnna Goudie is retiring from the position of secretary. She is happy to help mentor whoever takes over the job. The secretary takes notes at all member and board meetings, makes sure Guild notices (such as day/times of meetings) are sent out on time, keeps the Guild's records, fills in for the president and/or vice president in their absence, and in general helps keep good communications between the board and the members.
