CELEBRATING THE CREATIVE ACT.

March 2019 Newsletter

Member Meeting
March 19, 6:30pm

Wy'East Artisans Guild invites the public to hear and be inspired by Greg Lewis, an art professor with a 45-year career as a contemporary artist and designer. Lewis will speak on his work produced in wood, metal, stained glass and collage prints. See attached PDF for more information.

Located at Antfarm Cafe 39140 Proctor Blvd, the doors open at 6:30 with the speaker at 7PM. No charge.

"It's a Mystery"
WAG Spring Theme Show

Correction! Reception: May 3rd (time to be announced)

Take down: end of June (date to be announced)

The Guild's spring theme show, "It's a Mystery", has just been hung in the Sandy Public Library. Please plan to attend the May 3rd First Friday reception and bring a snack, if you're able. (Apologies for the wrong date being published in the previous newsletter!)

Reception 3/21 6:45

Required Tag Info: Title of art Medium Size Price

The new play will be Fuddy Meers and our theme is Memory Book. Pam Smithsted will be our featured artist. The play is about a woman that has a stroke and her family involvement. Send Marcia Morrow your tag info by 3/10.

Anyone in WAG attending play preview night on Thursday evening will receive 2 complimentary tickets, one for themselves and one for a guest. All others can purchase a ticket for $10.00 for the preview night.

2019 SAT Season

Play: Fuddy Meers
Art Show: "Memory Book"

Play: Other People's Money

Art Show: "Shades of Green" (Featured Artist PR deadline: April 1)

SAT prefers that we not exhibit alcohol-related artwork, or nudity that would be inappropriate for children. SAT does not insure the artwork. Donations made at the art show receptions go to WAG.

There was a brief discussion of the upcoming shows "It's a Mystery" and "Memory Book", and a reminder that we will need a new Guild secretary as of June. Our featured speaker, Dan Justus, spoke to us about M. Graham paints, made here in Oregon, giving us lots of information about the ingredients of their paints and other products as compared to other brands. He distributed many samples of oil, acrylic, watercolor, and gouache for us to experiment with, and gave away those paints and brushes (plus unopened ones!) afterward, as well as asking that his speaker fee be put toward the Youth Art Class.

WANTED: New Guild Secretary

As of June, Dawinna Goudie is retiring from the position of secretary. She is happy to help mentor whoever takes over the job. The secretary takes notes at all member and board meetings, makes sure Guild notices (such as day/times of meetings) are sent out on time, keeps the Guild's records, fills in for the president and/or vice president in their absence, and in general helps keep good communications between the board and the members.
